

Dear Quinn,

Though you have completed 75 or more units, we noticed that you have not taken the Upper Division Writing Proficiency Exam (UDWPE) yet.

Failure to take the UDWPE will result in a hold, preventing you from registering for fall 2012 courses. The next available exam date is April 28.

Registration starts March 5 at 8:30 a.m. You must register at University Cash Services in the main lobby of Bayramian Hall. Forms will be available.

The $20 fee can be paid by cash or with a check made out to CSUN. Debit card payments will be accepted, but expect slower processing time.

Online or mail-in registration is not available for the UDWPE. If you are unable to register in person, you may have someone fill out the form and submit payment using your student ID number.

Registration fills up quickly, so sign up now. The next UDWPE is on May 26, with registration beginning April 30.

If you took the March 3 test, please disregard this message.
